PROJECT(S)

DEBATE BOX

Mern Stack | Bootstrap

Problem: A revolutionary software solution designed to empower users to engage in dynamic debates

- Each topic introduced to DebateBox is equipped with its own debate chat box where users can freely express their opinions.
- Implemented role-based access, end-to-end communication, and unique link mailing
- User-friendly interface accessible via mobile and web platforms

CBIT-PLACEMENT CELL

Mern Stack | CSS

Problem: Traditional methods of job and internship applications are ineffective due to reliance on email forwarding, resulting in students missing out on opportunities.

- Overcome the inefficiency of email forwarding: By centralizing job, internship, and course opportunities within the CBIT-Placement Cell website, students can access and apply for these opportunities instantly, eliminating the need for manual email forwarding.
- Students can stay updated on available opportunities, increasing their chances of securing placements and enhancing their skill sets.
